Zagreb Reopens the Bosnian Question – Hungarian Conservative

📅 July 24, 2026

At Hungarian Conservative, Filip Gašpar examines the implications of the “Resolution on Strengthening the Political Position of Croats in Bosnia and Herzegovina” recently adopted by Croatia’s parliament.

The Serb critique of the Dayton order and the Croat critique now increasingly rhyme. Both argue that the settlement, as administered, has hollowed out the equality it promised. Both regard decisions taken by international officials as having eroded, rather than protected, the position of a constituent people.
