Jihad in the Balkans: A Persistent Terrorist Threat in Europe – RealClear World

November 11, 2026

At RealClear World, Serbia's ambassador the United States, Dragan Šutanovac, warns of the threat of violent Islamist extremism in the Western Balkans, writing that the region "must not once again become a place where international terrorist organizations find new recruits, logistical support, or safe haven. Prevention requires sustained cooperation among the United States, its European allies, and the countries of the Western Balkans."
