Subject: RE: REPLY REQUESTED: Deforestation linked to major palm oil suppliers

Hi Girish,

Thanks for the update. KLK confirmed this with us earlier in the week, and their decision is now on KLK's public grievance log.

How will P&G ensure that all its 1st tier suppliers do not supply Samling palm oil to P&G's supply chain in the future? For example, other companies are informing all their 1st tier suppliers of their 'No Purchase' decisions, i.e. formally asking their suppliers not to supply Samling palm oil to them.

Also, thank you for informing us of P&G's internal grievance log. We encourage you to make this grievance log public to enhance transparency of the actions that P&G is taking to resolve any NDPE violations, as other companies have done. Is that something P&G would consider?

Best,
