¹ This statement shall be signed by the individual agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions, if the registrant is an organization, except that the organization can, by power of attorney, authorize one or more individuals to execute this statement on its behalf.

Exhibit B, Item 6:

There are no fees or expenses to be incurred in connection with registrant's FARA-related activity for the foreign principal, there is no defined duration, and the terms and conditions of the oral agreement are simply to respond to media inquiries concerning our legal work for the foreign principal. That legal work involves representing the foreign principal as his legal counsel in connection with a matter pending before the United Nations to obtain withdrawal or clarification of a report issued by an investigative body within the United Nations. On an as-needed basis, we may respond to media inquiries regarding our legal representation, although we are presently aware of no media inquiries other than an inquiry from Voice of America. Registrant has not billed the foreign principal for the limited time spent responding to the Voice of America reporter, nor does registrant intend to bill him for any additional media work. Registrant's legal work is performed on an hourly rate basis plus expenses. The legal representation will be ongoing.
