Sustainable Peace in Afghanistan: The Vital Role of Parliament in the Peace Process

Afghanistan's Parliament has emerged as a strong advocate for the Afghan people, promoting government reform, transparency, accountability, and peace. With the constitutional mandate to ratify a future peace agreement, Parliament is intimately involved in the peace process. Join us to hear directly from young leaders and reformers in Parliament about their plans to implement and sustain a peace agreement.

ABOUT THE DPPC

The Afghanistan - U.S. Democratic Peace and Prosperity Council (DPPC) is an organization dedicated to furthering a long-term alliance, forged in a strong mutual commitment to shared ideals between Afghans and Americans. Based in Washington, D.C., the DPPC is a policy focused organization working to ensure a sustainable peace process, strong democratic institutions, women's and children's rights, anti-corruption, good governance, and economic development in Afghanistan. The DPPC's mission is to support legislation and policies that provide a better future for young Afghans and help the reformers in Afghanistan's Parliament move the country along the path to self-sufficiency.
