Children’s Museum at Louvre Abu Dhabi to Reopen on Friday with Emotions!: The New Art Adventure

The exhibition will take families and children on an immersive journey to explore emotions.

Abu Dhabi, 16 June 2021: Louvre Abu Dhabi’s Children’s Museum will reopen to the public on 18 June with a fantastic new exhibition that will take children on an interactive adventure of art and activities that will help them identify and explore their emotions.

Combining entertainment and education for children aged four to 10, Emotions!: The New Art Adventure will feature ten artworks and four interactive stations, which will familiarise visitors with four main emotions: joy/serenity, sadness, fear, and anger.

HE Mohamed Khalifa Al Mubarak, Chairman of the Department of Culture and Tourism – Abu Dhabi (DCT Abu Dhabi), said: “We are proud to see the reopening of Louvre Abu Dhabi’s Children’s Museum with this new interactive, entertaining and safe exhibition. Art can be a powerful medium to both inspire a child’s creativity and add to their emotional wellbeing.”

Manuel Rabaté, Director of Louvre Abu Dhabi, said: “We are thrilled to once again welcome children and families to the Children’s Museum, especially to an exhibition that explores emotions. The Children’s Museum is at the heart of our mission to inspire the next generation through art. We hope... families in our community will experience this safe and affordable place to learn and play during these summer months.”

The Children’s Museum is free to all children. Families need only purchase museum admission tickets for accompanying adults for the whole family to access all Louvre Abu Dhabi galleries and exhibitions. Access to the Children’s Museum is included in the cost of admission, which is free for anyone under 18.

To ensure the safety of all visitors, Children’s Museum activities feature touchless components and single-use activity materials. Capacity limits and social distancing in all Children’s Museum spaces will be adhered to, and regular sanitising stations made available.

Taking a gamification approach to education, the museum will include interactive games and activities that engage all the children’s senses, teaches empathy, helps build an understanding of emotions and their expression, while they play and collect achievement points for tasks completed.

Emotions!: The New Art Adventure will also be accompanied by an extensive cultural programme that will be available at the museum.

Films focusing on emotions will be screened in the museum’s auditorium on Saturdays — 19 June, 26 June and 3 July. The films curated by Rinku Awtani include three feature films: The Secret World of Arrietty by Hiromasa Yonebayashi, The Breadwinner by Nora Twomey, and Inside Out by Pete Docter, in addition to five short films; Looks by Susann Hoffmann, 3Feet by Giselle Geney, AMENTI by Kamela Bentouati and Amandine Dazin, Grandpa’s Nursery Rhyme by Yoshiko Misumi and Hair Love by Matthew A. Cherry.

In addition, Cherry’s Hair Love will also be projected on the museum’s wall on all three days for visitors and kayakers to enjoy outdoors.

As part of the Children’s Museum main activities, local artists Shaima Al Amri, Ali Kashwani and Maryam Al Atouly have pre-recorded virtual workshops that children can engage in at their own pace. The workshops will show children how to express feelings through artistic activities, such as drawing, collage and 2D sculpture.

More information about the film screenings is available on the museum’s website, as well as the option to pre-book a place.
