Response to Item 8

Item 8: Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

BCG International Inc.'s FARA registerable activities were originally directed and overseen by the Saudi Council of Economic and Development Affairs (CEDA), a government commission. Once the Saudi Government approved the establishment of a Saudi Partnership Office to support the 21st Century Saudi-US Partnership, Saudi Arabian Oil Company (Saudi Aramco), Saudi Arabia's state-owned petroleum and natural gas company based in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, provided the funds to support the Saudi-U.S. Partnership. Saudi Aramco was not a beneficiary of the services, but acted as paying agent paying fees for the project. This is reflected in the enclosed purchase order between Saudi Aramco and BCG International Inc.

BCG International Inc. was engaged to develop a 21st Century Saudi-US Partnership, and assess reactions and aspirations of key U.S. stakeholders to such a partnership. These U.S. stakeholders are U.S. public interest groups and private U.S. corporations. As part of this engagement, BCG was tasked with exploring the potential for a strengthened Saudi - U.S partnership along social and economic dimensions. BCG was also tasked with identifying specific suggestions for most effective engagement of leaders from different U.S. sectors - including, education, entertainment, manufacturing, infrastructure, financial, and defense - to help further develop the partnership. BCG's key deliverables under the project included assisting and supporting meetings between U.S. stakeholders and the Saudi Delegation (February 2016 and June 2016); targeting industry participants and stakeholders to engage; establishing aspirations (e.g., help develop framework and key considerations to boost social and economic collaboration); and program design (e.g., design sector specific enablers, incentives, change agenda and required commitments across priority opportunities). BCG's representation did not involve any outreach to U.S. government officials or to U.S. government agencies. This project terminated on June 30, 2016.
