How long have they been out of country? My great grandparents are the only ones that kept it up. Their kids, including my grandpa (6-10 yo when they left) dropped it over time.

Hungary is one of the most beautiful countries I've traveled to (out of about 40 or so countries.) I'd be proud to be Hungarian.

I want to make Hungarian mushroom soup at home for the first time when the temp drops here, but I am Irish/Choctaw. Is that appropriation? May I have your blessing if so?
