

David Reaboi, Late Republic Nonsense
@davereaboi

Promote

Hungary’s Orbán is the world leader who’s most articulate about the challenges of nationalism vs globalism. The media present it as good vs evil, or enlightened vs ignorant—but it’s really just about the rulers being accountable to their citizens. Read this new interview.

There’s an important question underlying this debate: What is Europe?

Members of the European Parliament believe that Europe is Brussels, that the institutions operating in Brussels – such as the Parliament – epitomise the future of Europe, and that it is there that the decisions on the future of our continent must be made. We heads of government take the view, however, that the EU is in the national capitals. We gather together in Brussels because that’s where we have talks, but that’s not the centre of the EU: it’s simply the place where we meet – because the European Union is in Warsaw, Bucharest, Zagreb, Budapest, Paris, Rome and Berlin. It’s in the national capitals.

Europe is Brussels, that the institutions operating in Brussels – such as the Parliament – epitomise the future of Europe, and that it is there that the decisions on the future of our continent must be made. We heads of government take the view, however, that the EU is in the national capitals. We gather together in Brussels because that’s where we have talks, but that’s not the centre of the EU: it’s simply the place where we meet – because the NGOs, civil society organisations, research institutes, their media influence and all kinds of international background rating institutions, judging press freedom and democracy.

We call this the global elite, an elite operating in the background which represents the interests of large international financial groups. They’ve gained a foothold in the European Parliament, and

2:03 PM · Dec 21, 2020

 View post engagements

 13 154 513 41

Post your reply

Received by NSD/FARA Registration Unit 09/27/2023 3:05:27 PM

Reply

-

HungarianFalcon @HungarianFalcon · Dec 21, 2020

He’s great. Poles and Magyars have learned some painful lessons in the last century, many of which were forced upon them rather than by their own doing.

 1 1 8
-

Trevor Zantos  @usgeneral25 · Dec 21, 2020

Owner under for next country leaving EU? Poland or EU first?

-

Zara    @Zara20202020 · Dec 21, 2020

100

-

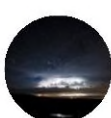

ngy8095 @ngy8095 · Dec 21, 2020

Isn’t this Soros narrative a bit tired and worn out -especially in Hungary?

 1 1
-

GetOverYourself   @GetOver59889383 · Dec 21, 2020

Do you have a link to the whole interview?

 1
-

Jackson Lange @jlange_333 · Dec 21, 2020

Orban sent his troops to Macedonia to stop Balkan route, then EU did a color revolution in MK helped by USA remove Gruevski replaced with leftist Zaev he changes country name, changes identity to Macedonian Citizen of North Macedonia, Balkan route reopens & Orban still attacked

-

Anonamom @Anonamom7B · Dec 21, 2020

Those are very astute observations. Is there more to the interview? If yes, could someone please post a link?

 1
-

Pat Riot @PatRiot30673142 · Dec 21, 2020

It is our fault, David. We allow them to disrespect us. And truth be told, the majority of Citizens are weak and want to be taken care of. Especially in Europe.

-

Peter Santer @peter_santer · Dec 21, 2020

Read where? I’m interested

Received by NSD/FARA Registration Unit 09/27/2023 3:05:27 PM

