Response to Item 12

Item 12: If the foreign principal is an organization and is not owned or controlled by a foreign government, foreign political party or other foreign principal, state who owns and controls it.

Huawei is an independent, privately-held company. We are not owned or controlled by, nor affiliated with the government, or any other 3rd party corporation.

In fact, Huawei is owned by our employees through an Employee Stock Ownership Program (ESOP) that has been in place since the beginning. No one can own a share without working at Huawei, and as of 2018 there were 96,768 shareholding employees. Our founder, Ren Zhengfei, owns a 1.14% stake in the company.

 Shares confer voting rights. Shareholding employees elect members to form a Representatives’ Commission, getting one vote for each share held. Then the Commission elects the company’s Board of Directors and Supervisory Board. At the last election in January 2019, 86,514 shareholding employees voted to elect 115 representatives at 416 polling stations around the world.

Employee-ownership is instrumental to our rapid growth. Over the years, it has offered an incentive to our loyal employees and helped us attract talented people. Unlike many publicly-owned companies, Huawei’s decisions are not based on the need for quarterly returns and annual dividends.

10.1 If the services and/or materials required to be provided by Agency as outlined in the SOW require the need by Agency to engage third party contractors ("Suppliers"), to assist in the provision of Services pursuant to this Agreement, then Agency shall be allowed to retain such Suppliers, provided that Agency at all times shall have overall responsibility to Huawei for any such Services provided by Suppliers.

10.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term “Supplier” shall not include any vendors, including without limitation, photographers, music suppliers, stock houses, shipping companies, media providers, hosting providers, research suppliers, technology vendors and other suppliers engaged by Agency to assist in the completion of or provide services incidental, ancillary or supplemental to the Services (“Vendors”) as opposed to third parties engaged to provide services that would otherwise be performed by Agency hereunder. Agency will endeavor to guard against any loss to Huawei through failure of Vendors to execute properly their commitments but Agency shall not be held responsible for any failure on the part of (i) any Vendor or (ii) any subcontractors that Huawei requires or directs Agency to engage or that perform services that Huawei requires or directs Agency to subcontract. All Suppliers and Vendors must be bound by obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive as those contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 11 LIMITED WARRANTY

11.1 Limited Warranty. Agency shall provide the Services in good faith, with a reasonable degree of care and diligence. THIS WARRANTY IS IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES WHETHER STATUTORY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT AND FOR ALL OTHER OBLIGATIONS OR LIABILITIES. Agency DOES NOT ASSUME, NOR AUTHORIZES ANY OTHER PERSON TO ASSUME FOR IT, ANY OTHER LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES.

11.2 Performance Remedy. In the event that Agency fails to provide the Service, or the quality of the Service is not in accordance with its warranty in Section 11.1, Huawei shall give Agency prompt written notice thereof. Agency shall then have thirty (30) days to correct any services that do not conform in strict compliance with the mutually agreed upon specifications. If after such period Agency has failed to correct the non-conforming deliverables, Huawei may seek an alternative provider for such Service and Agency shall discontinue performing such Service at the written request of Huawei. If Agency does not remedy the issue, Agency shall refund Huawei any paid but unearned fees.

SECTION 12 OWNERSHIP OF WORK PRODUCT

12.1 Intellectual Property Rights. Each Party shall retain sole ownership of, and all rights to, any Intellectual Property of any kind previously owned by that Party or created solely by that Party. Provided that it is final, selected, and fully-paid for, Huawei shall be the sole owner of all right, title and interest in and to any Intellectual Property rights related to Services and any improvements, modifications or derivative works of any Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Services may include discoveries, improvements, ideas, works of authorship, inventions, know-how, and other technology for which the intellectual property rights in such Services are owned by third parties who have consented to such use by Agency and Huawei as set forth herein ("Preexisting Materials"). Preexisting Materials are owned by such third party, and ownership thereof is not assigned or transferred to Huawei under this Agreement. Huawei shall be bound by any limitations and shall be subject to any restrictions or terms associated with the applicable third party materials, as communicated in writing to Huawei by Agency; and shall receive, with respect to such third party materials, only such warranties and protections as Agency receives directly from the applicable third party, which shall be provided to Huawei in writing. Use of Preexisting Materials must be approved by Huawei in writing in advance.

12.2 Reasonable Access. At Huawei’s sole cost, upon thirty (30) days’ advance written notice (not more than once annually), Huawei may appoint an external auditor from a “Big 4” accounting firm (Deloitte, KPMG, Ernst & Young or PWC), to audit any Records (as defined below) of Agency at the location where such Records are ordinarily kept by Agency, solely to confirm the charges paid by Huawei, at any time during Term of this Agreement and for one (1) year following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, during normal business hours (and for no more than 5 days per audit), so as not to unreasonably disrupt Agency’s conduct of business. The audit shall not include, and in no event shall Huawei or the auditor have access to, individual payroll and personnel files; fixed pricing arrangements; non-disclosed media sales; any information subject to restrictions in contracts with third parties, or any other internal Agency cost or non-billable expenses. Additionally, in no event shall Huawei or the auditor have access to Agency’s IT systems and servers, processes or plans. The external auditor must be one whose remit is not to provide data to Huawei but provide confirmation of the accuracy of the calculations done by Agency. Huawei agrees that such audit firm may not be compensated on a contingency fee basis and any information gathered by such auditor shall not be used for benchmarking purposes. If Huawei elects to have such independent party perform the audit, then (a) the independent auditor and Huawei will be required to sign a non-disclosure agreement with Agency prior to the beginning of the audit; (b) a scope of work is to be agreed between Agency, Huawei, and the independent auditor before work commences and set forth in the non-disclosure agreement referenced in (a) above; (c) the independent auditor is required to provide evidence that it carries professional liability insurance with a minimum of $1,000,000.00 coverage, per occurrence; and (d) Agency shall be provided with a copy of the draft audit report prior to delivery to Huawei. “Records” means financial books, documents, accounting procedures and practices and other data, regardless of type or form, of all matters relating to the verification by Huawei of the charges paid by Huawei under this Agreement.

SECTION 13 MISCELLANEOUS

13.1 Notices. All notices, certifications, requests, demands, payments and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if sent by overnight delivery, by a nationally-recognized overnight delivery service; if mailed, by first class certified mail, postage prepaid or delivered personally; or if sent by e-mail simultaneously followed by the original communications by first class certified mail, postage prepaid, to the address for each Party on the signature page to this Agreement, or to such other address or addresses as may hereafter be specified by a Party by notice given to the other Parties in accordance with this Section 13.1. Notices given by United States certified mail as aforesaid shall be effective and deemed given on the third (3rd) business day following the day on which they were deposited in the mail. Notices delivered in person shall be effective and deemed given upon delivery. Notices sent by facsimile shall be effective and deemed given when transmitted, provided facsimile notice is confirmed by telephone and is transmitted on a business day during regular business hours. Notices sent by overnight delivery by a nationally-recognized overnight delivery service such as FedEx, UPS, DHL and it shall be effective and deemed given upon the day after the date sent.

13.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, and any SOW integrated herein and the documents delivered pursuant hereto, contain the entire understanding of the Parties hereto with regard to the subject matter contained herein or therein, and supersede all prior agreements, 13.3 Amendments and Modifications. This Agreement may not be extended, supplemented or modified in any way except by a document in writing signed by the both Parties.

13.4 No Assignment. Neither Party may assign or transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other Party’s express prior written consent, which written consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that either Party, without such consent, may assign this Agreement and its rights and obligations hereunder to any of its affiliates. As used herein, the term “affiliate” shall mean any business entity that, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a Party. Any attempt to assign this Agreement, without such consent, will be void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will bind and benefit the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

13.5 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect, and the provision affected will be construed so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent permissible by law.

13.6 Waiver. The waiver or the failure by either Party to claim a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any other provision or the waiver of the same provision at a subsequent time beyond the original breach.

13.7 Force Majeure. Neither Party shall be deemed in default of, nor shall any Party be liable for any cessation, interruption, delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement if such cessation, interruption, delay or failure results from any cause beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to earthquake; flood; storm or other natural disaster; act of God; acts of war; epidemics; power failures; malicious network attacks; nuclear accidents; and acts of terrorism; strikes; interruptions of transportation; the inability to obtain necessary labor, material or facilities; or delays in Federal Communication Commission or other governmental approvals. Any scheduled date for provision of Services shall be considered extended by a period of time equal to the time of any delay caused by a force majeure event. If either Party is unable to fully perform its obligations under this Agreement for a period of time in excess of thirty (30) days because of any force majeure event, the other Party may terminate this Agreement without further liability.

13.8 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to its choice of laws or conflict of law rules. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply to this Agreement or any Purchase Order.

13.9 Resolution of Disputes.

i. Subject to each Party's right to seek injunctive or equitable relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, the Parties agree to attempt to resolve all disputes under this Agreement in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures set forth herein. The Parties shall first attempt to resolve a dispute within ten (10) business days through meetings between the respective project managers and any other representatives deemed necessary for these discussions. If unsuccessful, the Parties agree to conduct face-to-face negotiations between senior executive officers of both Parties. If unsuccessful, or if fifteen (15) business days have passed since the Parties submitted the dispute to the senior executive officers, the Parties may submit the dispute to the appropriate court in New York.

ii. Subject to the dispute resolution procedures set forth above, venue and jurisdiction of any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination, or validity hereof will exist exclusively in the state and federal courts located in New York County and the Parties irrevocably consent to the personal jurisdiction and venue therein.

iii. EACH PARTY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL IN ANY COURT ACTION ARISING AMONG THE PARTIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER MADE BY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM, THIRD-PARTY CLAIM, OR OTHERWISE.

13.10 Cyber Security. Both Parties hereby acknowledge the importance of cyber security and the protection of personal data and privacy. Each Party agrees that in performing its obligations under this Agreement, or, in receiving products and Services supplied under this Agreement, it shall comply with any applicable laws, regulations and regulatory requirements with respect to the protection of personal data and privacy. In particular, each Party shall obtain and maintain all necessary consents, authorizations and permits as required by any applicable laws and regulations, in order to ensure legal compliance in processing any end user's personal data under or in connection with this Agreement, including, but not limited to, tracking, disclosing, disseminating, intercepting or destroying any and all such personal data. Each Party shall be solely liable for its own failure to comply with any relevant laws and regulations. Where a security vulnerability affecting the product or Services supplied under this Agreement is identified, the Parties shall cooperate in good faith and shall use their best efforts to mitigate the security risks so identified. For any other security incidents, both Parties shall cooperate in good faith and agree to take all reasonable steps necessary to remedy the security risk or breach in accordance with their responsibilities under this Agreement, and each Party shall bear its own costs as allocated in accordance with each Party's liabilities.

SECTION 14 CONFIDENTIALITY

14.1 Each Party ("Recipient") acknowledges that it may have access to the confidential or proprietary information ("Confidential Information") of the other Party ("Discloser") and Recipient agrees that it shall (i) use the Confidential Information of Discloser only for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations as contemplated under this Agreement, (ii) use the same degree of care, but never less than a reasonable standard of care, to prevent the unauthorized disclosure or dissemination of Confidential Information as it does to protect its own similar confidential information, and (iii) not disclose to any parties except its affiliates directors, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, auditors, professional advisers and independent contractors ("Representatives") who need to know it for the purposes set forth in this Agreement, provided that (a) such Representatives may only use the Confidential Information to the same extent as Recipient; and (b) Recipient causes such Representatives to abide and be bound by the terms of this Section 14, and Recipient assumes all responsibility for their breach of the terms of this Section 14. Confidential Information shall be subject to the restrictions and obligations specified herein whether or not it is (x) in writing or other tangible form; or (y) marked as proprietary or confidential when disclosed to the Recipient; or (z) disclosed orally or visually, summarized in a writing, marked to indicate its proprietary or confidential nature and delivered to the Recipient within thirty (30) days of such disclosure. For clarity, failure by the Discloser to mark or verbally disclose that such information is protected, confidential or proprietary will not be determinative of the protected, confidential or proprietary character of the disclosed information if, owing to its inherent character or the circumstances of its disclosure, a reasonable person would conclude that it should be considered confidential.

14.2 Information shall not constitute Confidential Information and Recipient shall have no obligation relating to such information which is: (i) received from a third party without restriction and without breach of this Agreement; (ii) independently developed by Recipient, as evidenced by written records; (iii) approved for release by written authorization of Discloser; (iv) was previously known to the Recipient without restriction; or (v) is or becomes publicly available by authorized disclosure by Discloser and without restriction.

14.3 Recipient may disclose Confidential Information in strict accordance with a judicial or other governmental order, provided that Recipient (i) to the extent legally permissible, gives Discloser’s representative reasonable notice prior to such disclosure and offers Discloser reasonable opportunity to defend against such demand, and (ii) seeks written assurance from the applicable judicial or governmental entity that it will afford the Confidential Information the highest level of protection afforded under applicable law or regulation. If requested by Discloser, Recipient will reasonably cooperate (at the expense of Discloser) in opposing such demand.

14.4 At any time, if either Party so directs the other Party in writing, and upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, Recipient shall promptly return to Discloser or destroy (to the extent legally permissible) all Confidential Information which has been furnished to Recipient and all copies, extracts or other reproductions in whole or in part thereof (including all electronic and computer records thereof). In the event of such a request, the original and all copies of any of the Confidential Information received by Recipient shall be (to the extent legally permissible) destroyed (including all electronic and computer records thereof), and Chief Information Officer must furnish the Discloser with a certificate of destruction.

14.5 Recipient agrees that its obligations set forth in this Agreement are necessary and reasonable in order to protect the Discloser. Recipient expressly agrees that due to the unique nature of the Confidential Information, monetary damages would be inadequate to compensate the Discloser for any breach or threatened breach by Recipient of its covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement. Accordingly, Recipient agrees and acknowledges that any such violation or threatened violation shall cause irreparable injury to the Discloser and that, in addition to any remedies that may be available, in law, in equity or otherwise, Discloser shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief or specific performance against the threatened breach of this Agreement or the continuation of any such breach by the Recipient, without the necessity of proving actual damages.

SECTION 15 HUAWEI REPRESENTATIONS

Huawei represents and warrants that it: (a) is responsible for the accuracy, completeness and propriety of the information that it provides to Agency concerning its products, services, organization and industry; (b) is responsible for reviewing all publicity or other materials prepared by Agency under this Agreement and any SOW entered into in connection herewith to confirm that all representations, direct or implied, and submitted to Huawei by Agency for approval, are supportable by objective data then possessed by Huawei, and to confirm the accuracy and legality of the descriptions and depictions of Huawei; and (c) will be responsible for ensuring that all required consents are obtained for the use of all intellectual property contained in any materials or data supplied by Huawei to Agency in relation to Agency’s services hereunder or under any SOW.

SECTION 16 COMPLIANCE
16.1 Each Party represents, warrants, and covenants to the other Party in connection with this Agreement that it: (i) has complied and will comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and industry codes governing bribery, money laundering, and other corrupt practices and behavior (including, as applicable, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and UK Bribery Act); and (ii) will not, directly or indirectly, offer, give, pay, promise to pay, or authorize the payment of any bribes, kickbacks, influence payments, or other unlawful or improper inducements to any person in whatever form (including, without limitation, gifts, travel, entertainment, contributions, or anything else of value). Either Party may, in addition to its other rights and remedies, immediately terminate this Agreement and/or any SOW in the event that the other Party receives any information which it in good faith determines, in its sole discretion, to be evidence of an actual, alleged, possible or potential breach by either Party of any representation, warranty, or covenant in this section. In the event of such termination, neither Party shall have liability to the other Party for any charges, fees, reimbursements, or other compensation or claims under this Agreement or any SOW issued thereunder, including for Services previously performed.

16.2 In addition to the above, as applicable Agency shall comply with the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as further defined under Exhibit B, as well as any other applicable United States laws (the “Applicable Laws”). In this context, and notwithstanding the confidentiality provisions set forth herein, Huawei recognizes that this Agreement and the services set forth herein may be disclosed as part of Agency’s (and relevant subcontractors) compliance with the Applicable Laws, and Huawei agrees to cooperate with Agency in complying with the Applicable Laws.

SECTION 17 NON-SOLICITATION OF PERSONNEL

During the Term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, neither Party will directly or indirectly solicit, recruit, engage or hire any employee or consultant of the other Party for a Party’s own benefit or for the benefit of any other person or entity; provided, however, that either Party shall have the right to hire any individual who, without other solicitation, responds to employment advertising in the newspapers, trade publications or other public commercial media.

SECTION 18 SURVIVAL

The Parties’ rights and obligations which by their nature would continue beyond the termination or expiration of this Agreement shall survive termination for any reason or expiration of this Agreement.

SECTION 19 COUNTERPARTS AND ELECTRONIC DELIVERY

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and may be delivered by electronic transmission, all of which taken together shall constitute a single instrument.

- Nature and amount of contributions, income, money or other items of value received from a foreign principal;
- Detailed statement of spending connected with activities for the foreign principal; and
- Certification that statements made and documents filed are accurate.

All records related to the activities subject to registration under the statute must be maintained for up to three (3) years after the termination of an agent’s registration.
