CHILD VICTIMS

WE ARE THE PHOENIX 11

11 survivors of child sexual abuse and child sexual abuse material that in most cases has been distributed on the Internet.

Today, we speak for a collective of survivors—many of whom will never be identified or ever have their voices heard.

We all know, at this point, that child sexual abuse on the internet is a global epidemic.

The internet, as it exists now, is more unsafe for children than any of us could have ever imagined it would become.

Babies, toddlers, and children are being targeted as prey online.

Their abuse, rapes, and tortures are being recorded, photographed, and live streamed, to satisfy the demands of pedophiles.

Every 60 seconds, 32 reports involving suspected child sexual abuse are made to the NCMEC CyberTipline.

It does not need to stay this way.

No matter who you are, you should want to do whatever you can to stop this epidemic.

And, to save future generations from the horrific abuse that has already been experienced by so many millions of children.

Today, we ask you to be the solution, and to pass the Earn It Act swiftly.

Advocacy Impact Statement

For a long time we were afraid. We were afraid of the dark, we were afraid of the unknown, we were afraid of our past and what it meant for our future. Alone, isolated, yet exposed to the world, we knew there were others like us out there, yet we were scared to confront their pain because of what they understood about our pain.

Last year we all took a bold step to overcome the fears about ourselves, to band together to become a force for change. To speak for all those who cannot speak for themselves. To make the invisible visible. To make the two dimensional three dimensions.

We are the Phoenix 11. Sexually abused as children, reduced to child sex abuse images, and stripped of our dignity and humanity, we have risen together as powerful young women who are retaking our identities and self-worth.

No longer content to live in the shadows, we are redefining what it means to be victims who were powerless to stop the relentless onslaught of the technology of abuse.

We are survivors of sexual torture, child rape, erotic photoshoots, pedophile sleepovers, elementary school sex shows, streaming BDSM, and twisted sexual desires whose digital images are trafficked worldwide to fulfill the endless needs of an evil perverted community which takes pleasure from our pain.

Now we are putting the world on notice that we will no longer be a silent suffering collage of young girls and boys whose nameless and often faceless images and videos circulate worldwide in the internet cesspool of humanity.

We are the Phoenix 11.

Hear our voice.

See our strength.

Answer our call.

We will not be stopped.

We will not be silent.
