

Insecurity in the Middle East: A Kurdish Perspective

January 22, 2024, at 12:30pm
2168 Rayburn Gold Room (RHOB)

Dear Colleague:

We are delighted to extend a warm invitation on behalf of the Kurdish American Caucus to a closed-door lunch panel discussion featuring Her Excellency Treefa Aziz, the Representative of the Kurdistan Regional Government (KRG).

In the midst of significant regional instability in the Middle East, H.E. Treefa Aziz will delve into crucial and time-sensitive national security and political developments in Iraq, the Kurdistan Region, and the broader area. Senior Congressional national security and policy staff will be joining her for this timely dialogue.

Key Highlights of the Event:

- Geopolitical Dynamics from Erbil's Perspective: H.E. Treefa Aziz will provide valuable insights into the current geopolitical landscape, offering a unique perspective from Kurdistan.
- Addressing Pressure Points in the Middle East: Candid discussions with senior staff will cover various pressure points, including the rise in attacks on US forces, diplomatic missions, assets, friends, and allies.
- Geopolitical Trajectory and Prospects of Regional Stability: An exploration of the evolving geopolitical landscape and an analysis of the potential for regional conflict.
- The session will conclude with a brief Question and Answer segment, providing attendees with the opportunity to actively participate in the discussion.

Please RSVP at Event Registration Link to confirm your attendance

Boxed lunch will be served.

This material is distributed by ArentFox Schiff LLP on behalf of Kurdistan Regional Government. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.