Caroline, copying Rowan –

Happy new year and I hope that you and Mr. Moulton are well.

While we have typically discussed issues related to the Middle East, in this instance I'm writing to request a meeting between Congressman Moulton and His Excellency Ibrahima Touré, the Ambassador of Côte d'Ivoire to the United States. Ambassador Touré is seeking to enter a dialogue with the Congressman regarding international trade and security issues central to the relationship between our two countries. Aware of Congressman Moulton's interest in these issues and in the region of West Africa more generally, Ambassador Touré can provide important facts and insights that can help to inform the Congressman about matters of vital interest to the United States.

As you undoubtedly know, Côte d'Ivoire has been a long-time reliable ally of the United States with shared interests and pluralistic values. Additionally, the United States is an important trading partner for the country, which exports cacao (and is the largest cacao producer in the world), gold, assorted minerals, including rare minerals of great importance to our own economy. The Ambassador would welcome the opportunity to brief the Congressman about the opportunities to develop closer ties between his nation and ours, specifically seen in international assistance by way of the MCC - which has extended significant capital to the Ivory Coast in support of the regional power grid. He is also eager to discuss matters of security, which are so critical to the stability of the entire African continent.

Ambassador Touré would be joined by members of our ArentFox Schiff team. We appreciate your consideration and welcome any additional questions that you might have in anticipation of an informative and productive meeting. Please do not hesitate to reach out for additional details. I look forward to hearing back from you at your convenience.

Best Regards,
Dan Sjostedt
