VI - EXECUTION

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, and subject to the penalties of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 and 22 U.S.C. § 618, the undersigned swears or affirms under penalty of perjury that he/she has read the information set forth in this statement filed pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., that he/she is familiar with the contents thereof, and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.

¹³ This statement shall be signed by the individual agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions, if the registrant is an organization, except that the organization can, by power of attorney, authorize one or more individuals to execute this statement on its behalf.

Registration No. 6971 — Bradley James Gordon
Supplemental Statement for the six month period ending 30 June 2026
Statement of basis

1. This note records the basis on which the financial information in this statement has been prepared, so that the figures reported at Items 14 and 15 can be reproduced from the underlying records.

2. Timing. This statement is filed shortly after its due date. During 2026 the registrant undertook a comprehensive review of the records of the registered activity from January 2024, in order to establish a consistent basis of reporting across all periods. That exercise took longer than anticipated and is the reason for the delay.

3. Basis of preparation. The following bases are applied consistently in this statement and in the statement for the period ending 31 December 2025.

3.1 Cash basis. Disbursements are reported in the period the money left the registrant's account, not the period the cost was incurred or invoiced. Receipts are reported when received; a sum receivable but not received is not a receipt.

3.2 Gross reporting. Costs met by the registrant and later reimbursed are reported in full at Item 15(a), with the reimbursement reported separately at Item 14(a) in the period received. The two are not netted.

3.3 Costs met personally. Where the registrant met a cost personally and was reimbursed by his firm, the disbursement is counted once, on the leg leaving the registrant. Transfers between his own accounts and the firm are neither disbursements nor receipts.

3.4 Air fares. The registrant's travel agent operates a rolling account settled in lump sums that cannot be matched to individual journeys. Air fares are reported by reference to the ticket rather than the date of settlement. This is the only departure from paragraph 3.1.

3.5 Travel. Whether a journey relates to the registered activity is determined by its destination and purpose, not by the airports through which it passed. Where a private element affected only the routing, the fare is apportioned; where the purpose of the journey was itself mixed, the fare is excluded in full.

3.6 Shared suppliers. The same travel agent, and the same firm bank account, are used for the registrant's personal travel and for other client matters. Payments to that agent, and movements on that account, therefore exceed the amounts reported here.

4. Estimates. Social security contributions of USD 1,010.00 are an estimate. Cambodian social security is charged per employee up to a cap and paid firm-wide; one evidenced monthly figure has been extended across the period and allocated by reference to the proportion of staff engaged on the registered activity. The private element of one air fare has been taken at USD 743.00, being an apportionment of a fare billed by the travel agent as a single line; the agent has been asked for the segment breakdown and the figure will be corrected if it differs materially.

5. Items 12 and 13. Both are answered Yes. The statement for the period ending 31 December 2024 answered Item 12 Yes but described the activity as not amounting to political activity, and answered Item 13 No. The present answers reflect the growth of the registrant's public-facing and own-behalf activity across 2025 and 2026, and are given consistently in the statement for the period ending 31 December 2025.

6. Reported disbursements are higher than in earlier periods, principally because this period and the preceding one are dominated by the physical return of objects to Cambodia, and because the gross basis at paragraph 3.2 reports both the cost and the reimbursement. Reported receipts are also higher, reflecting reimbursement by the foreign principal in this period of costs met by the registrant in this and the preceding period.

EXECUTION

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, and subject to the penalties of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 and 22 U.S.C. § 618, the undersigned swears or affirms under penalty of perjury that he/she has read the information set forth in this statement filed pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., that he/she is familiar with the contents thereof, and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.

Appendix

Response to Item 12-Description

Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts: Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts: The registrant acts for the Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts of the Kingdom of Cambodia on the recovery and return of Khmer cultural property held abroad, principally in the United States. Most of that work is legal and investigative and is reported at Item 11. Part of it is public-facing and is reported here: press releases issued jointly with the foreign principal announcing returns of objects, contact with journalists, participation in a cultural film festival in the United States, and posts on the registrant's LinkedIn and Facebook accounts concerning the return of Khmer objects. Those communications were directed in part at sections of the public within the United States and concerned the public interests of a foreign government, and are reported as political activity under Section 1(o). The registrant did not lobby any officer or official of the United States Government and received no compensation for the activity described.

Appendix

Response to Item 13

Item 13: In addition to the above described activities, if any, has the registrant engaged in activity or rendered any services on its own behalf which benefits the registrant's foreign principal(s)? If yes, describe fully.

Foreign Principal(s)	Activity
Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts	As in the preceding period, the registrant pursued on his own behalf a narrative non-fiction book about the repatriation campaign, an illustrated book on Khmer cultural heritage, and the set up of the Punaravartan Foundation. Work on the illustrated book began in this period under a research phase at the registrant's own expense; the position on the Minister's involvement is as stated in the preceding period, and she has not been involved with the work since the researcher was engaged. The prospective immersive film experience concerning Khmer cultural heritage, a commercial venture of the registrant under discussion since 2022. CONCLUDED DURING THIS PERIOD: discussions with a prospective production counterparty terminated in the first half of 2026 without any consideration being paid or received by either party, and the project has been cancelled. None of these undertakings was commissioned, directed or funded by the foreign principal and their costs are not reported at Item 15(a) .
