

Delegation of German Industry and Commerce in Washington, DC

On July 4, 1776, the Continental Congress, a representative body of delegates from the thirteen original American colonies, adopted the Declaration of Independence, which had Thomas Jefferson as its principal author. This document declared the colonies' intent to separate from British rule and established the United States as an independent nation.

🇺🇸 July 4th is celebrated as #IndependenceDay to honor the nation's founding, to celebrate the principles of freedom and liberty, and to unite Americans in a shared appreciation of their history and identity. It is a time for communities to come together and organize picnics, barbecues, or outdoor gatherings. People celebrate with their families, friends, and neighbors, enjoying food, games, fireworks, and socializing.

In observance of Independence Day, our office will remain closed today.

#4thofjuly

.

.

.

This material is distributed by DGIC on behalf of DIHK DEinternational GmbH. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

