Come join us for an enlightening workshop focused on navigating World Bank Procurement for beginners.

This session is designed to assist newcomers in understanding and navigating the procurement processes of the World Bank. Learn key strategies, insider tips, and essential resources to engage effectively with one of the globe's leading development organizations. We'll simplify the procurement journey, offering practical advice and direction to jumpstart your path toward fruitful collaborations with the World Bank. Don't let this valuable chance slip away—seize the opportunity to access global development prospects.

Please note:

This webinar is not to be confused with our May 23 webinar focused on World Bank Rated Criteria.
