Join us for the German American Executive Summit on March 5–6, 2026, in New Orleans!

Now in its second year, this premier gathering brings together leaders, innovators, and changemakers from across the German-American business community. The Summit serves as a dynamic space to build new connections, strengthen partnerships, and exchange forward-looking ideas that drive transatlantic cooperation. Jointly hosted by the five German American Chambers of Commerce in the U.S., it's the place where industries intersect and lasting collaborations take shape.

Highlights of the 2026 German American Executive Summit:

- Fresh perspectives on innovation, strategy, and long-term growth
- Thought-provoking conversations with top executives and visionaries
- Unique opportunities to expand and deepen your professional network

The event concludes with the German American Business Awards Gala Dinner, an evening dedicated to celebrating outstanding achievements and impact within the transatlantic business community. Companies making a mark on both sides of the Atlantic are invited to explore how they can be recognized—more details below.
