With 2025 coming to a close, tax season is fast approaching. For U.S. citizens living in Germany and Germans residing in the United States, understanding cross-border tax requirements can quickly become overwhelming. Many expats grapple with uncertainties: how to properly report an inheritance, what to do about foreign bank accounts, or at what income level a filing becomes necessary in either country.

To help bring clarity to these and other common challenges, we are pleased to welcome two seasoned experts:

Julian Thalmeir, a German Tax Advisor specializing in international tax matters, and Carolin Hock of Hock Tax Services, a U.S.-based specialist in cross-border tax solutions.

Together, they will walk participants through typical tax pitfalls faced by transatlantic expats and share practical strategies for staying compliant in both jurisdictions. Following their presentation, both experts will be available for a short Q&A session to address additional questions.

Date: Friday, December 5
