With 2025 nearing its end, tax season is right around the corner. For U.S. citizens living in Germany and Germans residing in the U.S., navigating cross-border tax obligations can feel daunting. Whether it's reporting an inheritance, managing foreign bank accounts, or understanding when a filing is required in either country, you want to feel prepared as tax season approaches.

To help clarify these common challenges, we're bringing together two seasoned experts:

Julian Thalmeir, German Tax Advisor specializing in international tax matters
Carolin Hock, Hock Tax Services, a U.S.-based specialist in cross-border tax solutions

They will break down typical tax pitfalls faced by transatlantic expats and offer practical strategies for staying compliant in both countries. A Q&A will follow their presentation.

Date: Friday, December 5
🕒 Time: 12:00-1:00PM EST
