Join us for the 11th German American Business Forum!

 June 9, 2026 |  MEWA Arena in Mainz, Germany

The German American Business Forum returns in 2026 and brings together companies, decision-makers, and industry experts from Germany and the United States for a full day of exchange and transatlantic business insights.

Organized by the German American Chambers of Commerce in partnership with the IHK-Arbeitsgemeinschaft Rheinland-Pfalz (IHK Pfalz, IHK Koblenz, IHK für Rheinhessen, IHK Trier) this event provides a platform for companies to explore current economic topics, practical market perspectives, and real-world experiences from businesses active in the US market.

What to expect:

Participants can expect a focused program with keynote sessions, panel discussions, hands-on workshops, and opportunities for direct exchange with peers and experts.

How to get involved:

Whether interested in attending or in positioning a company as a sponsor, the forum provides direct access to a highly relevant German American business audience.

More information on participation and sponsorship is available at <https://www.dawt.com/#/>
