 How are German companies around the world navigating today's economic landscape?

The global economy continues to grow at a moderate pace, while geopolitical tensions, trade uncertainties, and ongoing conflicts are creating new challenges for businesses. To better understand these developments, the global AHK network is conducting its economic survey to gather insights from German companies operating internationally.

 We invite German companies abroad to share their perspectives. Your input will help provide a clearer picture of current business conditions, opportunities, challenges, and expectations across international markets.

 The survey takes approximately five minutes to complete and is open until October 23, 2026: <https://lnkd.in/eXCzmcVK>
