

Reintegration process of Armenian residents

On October 2, 2023, to ensure the sustainable reintegration of Armenian residents of the Karabakh region of the Republic of Azerbaijan into Azerbaijani society and create opportunities for taking advantage of the patronage of the Azerbaijani state, the State Migration Service, employees of the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection of the Population have started their operations in the Karabakh economic region as part of respective instructions to determine the legal status of those persons given to the working group for solving social, humanitarian, economic and infrastructure issues in the Karabakh region, the Administration of the President of Azerbaijan.

- The State Migration Service accepts the initial registration applications from the Armenian residents living in Karabakh. The Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of the Population is involved in defining the socio-humanitarian needs of the residents.
- Moreover, initial registration applications are accepted in an electronic form by the State Migration Service through the reintegration.gov.az portal.

- The activity of state body employees in the region will help to ensure more swift reintegration of Armenian residents living in Karabakh into the local society and enhance effectiveness in meeting their socio-humanitarian needs.
