6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. The period of duration is perpetual.

B. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to advocate for the support of freedom, justice and democracy in Afghanistan through active outreach to Congress, the Administration, and the American people and to promote social welfare within the meaning of section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law) (the “IRC”), including for such purposes, engaging in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act of 2010. The Corporation is not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member of the Board of Directors or any other individual except that the Corporation may make payments of reasonable compensation for services rendered. The Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.
The Corporation may devote a substantial part of its activities for lobbying purposes (including the publishing or distribution of statements) or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office to an extent that would disqualify it from tax exemption under section 501(c)(4) of the IRC.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(4) of the IRC.

C. The Corporation shall not have any capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock.

D. The management of the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined by and described in the Corporation’s bylaws.

E. No officer or director of the Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of the Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of any officer or director be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of the Corporation.

F. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, all of the business, properties, assets and income of the Corporation remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, association, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for tax exempt purposes which are reasonably related to the purposes and goals of the Corporation, as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation in its sole discretion, and which has established its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) or section 501(c)(4) of the IRC.
EXECUTION
