Subject: RE: The Embassy of the Republic of Sudan

Hello Liz,

My colleague just learned that it is likely that sanctions are going to be imposed this morning on Sudan's leader Abdel Fattah al-Burhan.

We work with Col. Amru who oversees the humanitarian aid portfolio in the country. We advised him how important it was to open up distribution networks and allowing foreign aid workers into the country. On many accounts it has improved.

Is there any insight you are able to provide regarding the issuance of sanctions against Abdel Fattah al-Burhan?

Thanks,

John O'Hanlon
