Freedom For Mohamed Bazoum

We Just Surpassed 2000 Supporters

There's no other way to say it.

We are building something powerful.

Over 2,000 people from 90 countries have joined the fight to free President Mohamed Bazoum, including over 30 former Heads of State and Government. Hundreds more are joining every day.

Your support is essential to keeping global attention on President Bazoum's unjust detention and the broader fight for democracy in Niger.

We need to keep up the pressure. Can you forward this email to a friend and ask them to join us?

The World Is Watching

Momentum is building internationally. A recent Radio France Internationale \(RFI\) article highlights our effort and the many people — like you! — organizing for Bazoum's release.

Meanwhile, Reed Brody, President Bazoum's legal representative recently spoke on the record to Peter Clottey, host of VOA's Nightline Africa program, reinforcing the urgency of securing his freedom.

Here's How You Can Help Right Now:

- ✓ Forward this email to a friend and encourage them to sign the petition.
- ✓ Share the petition on social media using #FreeBazoum.
- ✓ Stay informed by following our updates and upcoming calls to action.

Your voice matters. Thank you for standing with us in this fight for democracy, justice, and President Bazoum's freedom.
