Via Electronic Mail:

Re: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2023

I have received your inquiry. Please be advised that this Law Firm had no connection of any kind to any Zoom call or purported webinar on Sunday, October 8, 2023. Nor did this Law Firm authorize any statements, comments, or proposals. If any remark of any kind was attributed to this Law Firm, it was made in clear error.

This Law Firm has conducted nine (9) webinars since February of 2022. It has been this Firm's consistent practice to provide at least two (2) weeks' notice of a scheduled webinar and each such notice has contained the call-in information. It has also been this Firm's practice to provide reminder notices on the eve of the scheduled webinar. Nor would this Firm conduct a webinar for victims with attendee limitations.

I remind each of you that only five (5) days ago, on October 4, 2023, I wrote as follows:

We will be scheduling a webinar in October to address these and other issues. If you are interested in attending, please let us know. If you have questions that you would like to present, please forward them to me at your earliest convenience.

Nothing in that email suggested or even hinted that the anticipated October webinar would be four (4) days later with no further notice from this Firm.

As I also wrote on October 4, 2023: “[p]lease remember that no one and no group is authorized to speak for this Firm.... We have not authorized, and we will not authorize, anyone else to speak for us or for our clients.” That statement, obviously, applies to any statements made at the Sunday, October 8, 2023, webinar.

Though it should not be necessary, this Law Firm will issue another update shortly to again dispel unfounded rumors and inaccuracies. Please feel free to continue to contact this Firm with your questions, comments, and suggestions.

And, as I have noted before, if you are a client of US attorney Peter Miller or the law firm of Miller DellaFera PLC, and you are not a client of this Firm, please ignore this communication and contact Mr. Miller or his firm.

Sincerely,

Philip Musolino
