

GRAND OPENING!

TURKEN
Foundation
USA

This material is distributed by Turken Foundation Inc. on behalf of the Turkish Youth and Education Service Foundation (TURGEV) and Ensar Foundation. Additional information is available the Department of Justice, Washington, DC

Turken House is available for immediate occupancy on May 1, 2025.

- Located at 300 East 41st Street, New York, NY 10017
- Providing premier affordable Student Housing with a faith-friendly environment
- A Supportive Environment for Academic & Spiritual Growth
- Experience Unmatched Comfort & Community
- Purpose-built housing for Muslim students

Available Studio and 2 Bedroom Units, Common Areas with convenient accommodation, along with Laundry Rooms, a Masjid, Conference Halls, Fitness Room and Study Areas

WHO WE ARE

The Turken Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting Muslim students in the U.S. by providing safe, culturally appropriate housing and opportunities for personal growth, career development, and community engagement. Our mission is to empower students academically, socially, and spiritually while promoting cross-cultural understanding between diverse Muslim traditions and American culture.

To Submit your application, please visit our website.

