On November 23, 2024, NRCE-GIE conducted a successful seminar as scheduled. Thanks to all who attended and participated in our conference. It lasted four hrs. and 40 minutes, and we have enjoyed every minute of it. The majority of the time was spent on Q & A, as it should.

The seminar was conducted by Ghebre Bahdurai, president of Transitional Government In Exile, Senator Haile G/Tinsae, head of Public Relations, and Mr. Ali Hindi, head of diplomacy. The sponsors and mediators of the conference were:

Aramit for United Eritrean Popular Uprising

አራማት ንዑሁድ ህዝባዊ ምልዕዓል ኢርትራውያን

أراميت لانتفاضة الشعب الإريتري الموحد

Again, thanks to the sponsors and gentle participants. The conference was very civil and orderly, with much respect for each other. We had challenging questions, and we hope we answered them to their satisfaction.

We plan to conduct another closed seminar soon to discuss with all political and civic associations to devise ways how to work together in the future. We found a way to bring all these things to one round table in an independent setting. We have established a “ National Eritrean Leadership Conference” in which Eritrean organizations can join independently and at their own free will. The NRCE-GIE should chair it as an umbrella and an organization with National agendas.

NRCE-GIE will not interfere with any political or civic association’s philosophical views, nor do we have a right to meddle in their activities. They are responsible for their own decisions, and so are we. We are the sole spokesperson and representative of the unrepresented Eritrean people, filling the vacuum because we do it in action. We are working diligently, without hesitation, to advocate for Eritreans wherever they might be. No one should need an election to save a person from a burning house. There is a word for it: courageous, brave, and even a hero. I want to hear otherwise.

Stay tuned for our next leaders conference, which will include the YIAKL movement, BNH, and others. It's time to mend fences for a common cause. We can find ways to work together; therefore, I present an olive branch of peace and understanding with the spirit of collaboration to expedite our fight against the tyrant. We must aim our arrows towards the Eritrean enemy, not at each other.
