Appendix
Response to Item 11

Item 11: Describe in detail all services which you will render to the foreign principal listed in Item 10 either directly, or through the primary registrant listed in Item 8.

Brown Rudnick has been engaged since March 2022 to provide legal services to the Commonwealth/Government of The Bahamas ("The Bahamas") unrelated to any registrable activities. In particular, we agreed to represent The Bahamas in connection with the development of a country policy position statement regarding digital assets. (Please note that our engagement letter for this representation has not been provided because it only describes non-registrable activities and contains privileged and confidential information regarding specific steps and strategies to be used in connection with developing a high-level white paper reflecting the government's position on digital assets.)

Recently, Brown Rudnick has been reengaged by The Bahamas following the high-profile collapse of FTX Digital Markets Ltd. ("FTX") for services which come within the legal representation exemption. (Again, please note that our engagement letter is not provided because it does not involve registrable activities.) Given the significant attention by the U.S. government and media surrounding the collapse of FTX, Brown Rudnick anticipates that it may perform additional activities, which fall outside of the legal exemption, that require Brown Rudnick to communicate on behalf of The Bahamas with media outlets in the U.S. and/or U.S. government agencies and/or participate in meetings with representatives of the U.S. media and/or U.S. government agencies to discuss The Bahamas' activities and bona fides. Brown Rudnick anticipates that it may also contribute to written materials taking a position on the same, may share such materials through its website or social media, or may comment to the U.S. media on such materials. Accordingly, we have entered into another engagement letter dated December 6, 2022, attached hereto, that was agreed upon by The Bahamas on December 19, 2022. Note that we have yet to begin providing services under this agreement.
