Foreign Principal(s)	Activities/Services
Republic of Uganda	I represent small private small businesses and their entrepreneurs in the US market. This includes promoting their products at trade shows, helping them to establish relationships with US-based legal and financial experts, and providing them with business growth mentorship. My priority is to help small Ugandan companies that are seeking to empower the most vulnerable people in the nation through social enterprise. I want to create transnational micro business partnerships that change the world for the better. I do this in a volunteer post that I was appointed to by the Government of Uganda. The post is "Trade Representative" and is non-political. I also provide advice to Uganda's Presidential Advisory Committee on Exports, Investment and Development. In this capacity, I actively work to represent the US marketplace and the standards and values that can open and close doors for Uganda. To this end I have had meetings with US Embassy leadership in Kampala and relay concerns to the President of Uganda. I am currently focusing my advisory role on steps I want to see Uganda take to become a world role model for human rights, environmental stewardship, and conversational trade.

Republic of Uganda: I'm not sure if I understand this question.

I have incurred costs in connection with my duties as a Trade Representative of Uganda. For example, travel costs and legal fees, various incidentals, etc. However, I am not reimbursed for those and I'm not dispersing that money "on behalf" of the Republic of Uganda.
