Dear Mr. Newman:

As per our discussion, the government of Cameroon uses Mr. Emmanuel Nsahlai and Nsahlai Law Firm to go after Ambazonian-Americans and critics of the Biya regime in the United States. Mr. Nsahlai frequently writes letters to U.S. law enforcement (see latest attached), asking for innocent Ambazonian-Americans to be investigated and targeted. Mr. Nsahlai's posture is that those who oppose the Biya dictatorship are "terrorists", which is absurd. Mr. Nsahlai's father served in the Biya regime, and he is related through his mother to the Biya family. Mr. Emmanuel Nsahlai has also engaged in many frivolous lawsuits against Ambazonian-Americans, and I understand he recently has been ordered by the courts to pay damages to one of the Ambazonian-Americans he has been targeting. I understand that because of Mr. Nsahlai's shenanigans innocent Ambazonian-Americans have been raided by US law enforcement in the past, with those being targeted eventually being found of not having engaged in any wrongdoing.

In addition to Mr. Nsahlai being scrutinized, his sister Rose-Marie Nsahlai had been convicted by the U.S. Department of Justice for serious financial crimes: <https://www.justice.gov/usao-edva/pr/ashburn-woman-convicted-25-million-pandemic-fraud>

In my viewpoint, this is a clear example of trans-national repression. Ambazonian-Americans and Cameroonians, having fled the Biya dictatorship, should not then be targeted by the regime they fled on US soil. My suggestion is that a congressional letter to the State Department and U.S. law enforcement (such as DHS and FBI) highlighting Cameroon's attempts of trans-national repression, with Mr. Emmanuel Nsahlai as a key example. US law enforcement should be encouraged to not go about investigating and raiding innocent Cameroonians and Ambazonian-Americans, based off of the advice of the Biya dictatorship and their proxies in the United States.

U.S. officials could be encouraged to look into Mr. Nsahlai, including why he isn't registered as a foreign agent even though he clearly works for the government of Cameroon. From the feedback I received, anyone who addresses this issue pertaining to Mr. Nsahlai would be considered a 'hero' by Ambazonian Americans. I think the Congressman's Cameroonians and Ambazonian constituents would be grateful if this matter were addressed.

Subject: Request for Enforcement of New Trump Administration Immigration Policies
Against Ambazonia Separatists

Dear Special Agent ■,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to request that the Department of Homeland Security enforce the new Trump administration immigration policies targeting individuals who have violated U.S. immigration and anti-terrorism laws. Specifically, I urge DHS to prioritize the revocation of legal permanent residence (LPR) and citizenship for members of the Ambazonia separatist movement who have engaged in terrorism, immigration fraud, and other disqualifying activities.

As you know, I have been working closely with DHS and DOJ officials, including yourself, for the past several years on cases related to the Ambazonia separatist movement. Since our initial meetings in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C., in 2019 and 2020, we have collaborated extensively to gather intelligence and evidence against these individuals, many of whom have sought to exploit U.S. immigration laws while continuing to incite violence and terror abroad. Your intimate knowledge of their crimes, supported by evidence provided during those meetings, subsequent criminal reports and legal memorandums, current criminal pending cases, and so on and forth, underscores the need for swift action.

Legal Basis for Action

Under U.S. law:

1. INA Section 237(a)(4)(B): Legal permanent residents involved in terrorist activities, including material support of terrorism or membership in violent organizations, are deportable.

Phone Cam : + (237) 65909 - 0688

2. INA Section 212(a)(3)(B): This section retroactively renders individuals inadmissible for material support of terrorism, whether the activities occurred before or after obtaining their immigration status.
3. INA Section 340(a): Naturalized citizens can be denaturalized if their citizenship was procured through fraud or concealment of material facts, such as involvement in terrorism or violent organizations.
- 4.

The Trump administration's immigration policies emphasize national security and the removal of individuals involved in terrorism or criminal activities. These policies provide an essential framework for addressing the threat posed by Ambazonia separatists who reside in the U.S. and continue to engage in material support of terrorism.

Ambazonia Separatists Fit Trump Administration Priorities

The Ambazonia separatist movement and its members are the prime example of the type of immigrants that the Trump administration seeks to target and deport. These individuals have committed immigration fraud, violated anti-terrorism laws, and engaged in crimes against humanity, including killing school children. Targeting this group not only aligns with but exceeds the requirements and priorities outlined by the administration to protect national security and enforce immigration laws. Additionally, prosecuting and removing these individuals fulfills all the factors necessary for robust Federal prosecutions, demonstrating the government's commitment to safeguarding U.S. interests.

Specific Individuals of Concern

Prominent members of the Ambazonia movement, including Tapang Ivo Tanku, Eric Tano Tataw, and John Mbah Akuro, Christopher Anu Fobeneh, Samuel Sako Ikome, and others in the attached list, have used their positions to incite violence, solicit funds for terrorist activities, and recruit supporters. Many of these individuals:

- Have pending asylum applications or have been denied asylum and are appealing.
- Have committed immigration fraud by concealing their involvement in crimes against humanity and terrorism under INA Section 212(a)(6)(C) (fraud and misrepresentation).

Request for Action

I respectfully request the following actions:

1. Expedited Review of Asylum Applications: Ensure asylum applications from Ambazonia separatists are reviewed under enhanced vetting procedures, with a focus on their alleged support for terrorism.
2. Revocation of Immigration Status: Revoke the green cards and citizenship of individuals found to have violated U.S. laws, particularly those engaged in terrorism or fraud.
3. Deportation Proceedings: Prioritize deportation for those whose asylum applications have been denied or who are found inadmissible under U.S. law.

Additional Context

The actions of these individuals undermine the integrity of the U.S. immigration system. Their crimes, including incitement to violence and material support of terrorism, have caused untold harm to innocent civilians. These individuals exploit the asylum system to evade accountability while continuing their operations abroad.

Attached to this letter is a partial list of hundreds of Ambazonia separatists who have engaged in immigration fraud and support for terrorism. I respectfully request that this letter be escalated to your supervisors and relevant departments to ensure prompt action.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. I remain available to provide additional evidence or assist in any way necessary to support these cases.

Very Truly Yours,
NSAHLAI LAW FIRM

MEMORANDUM

LIST OF SEPARATISTS-TERRORISTS “AMBAZONIA” ORGANIZATIONS AND THEIR KEY MEMBERS RESIDING IN THE U.S.A.

Based on extensive research conducted by the Nsahlai Law Firm, the following is a list of organizations and their founders, officers, and directors who have conspired, aided, and abetted acts of immigration fraud, international terrorism, human rights violations, and violent crimes. These individuals and groups established NGOs to defraud Americans of millions of dollars under the guise of “humanitarian causes.” In reality, these funds were funneled to support armed insurgency and international terrorism activities.

This is substantiated by the conviction of nearly twenty high-ranking members of these organizations. Examples include United States v. Michael (Case 1:19-mj-02413), United States v. Edith Ngang (Case 1:21-cr-00195), and United States v. Alambi Walters (Case 1:21-cr-00194), and over 15 other related cases.

In other instances, prominent members remain detained without bail, pending trial, on charges of “material support of terrorism.” For example, see Case 4:22-cr-00261-RK and related cases in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Missouri, where individuals have been held for over two years.

This list underscores the urgent need for strict enforcement of President Trump’s immigration Executive Orders targeting undocumented, criminal, or otherwise ineligible immigrants, for deportation and revocation of status.
