Exhibit B to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Outsourcing Agreement

Pasona Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "the First Party") and Keys Group, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "the Second Party") have entered into this Outsourcing Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") to subcontract services stipulated in Article 1 to the Second Party in order for the Company to implement the "FY2023 Commissioned Project for Strengthening Response to Regulations, etc. in Countries and Regions of Export Destination" (hereinafter referred to as the "Project") entrusted by the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (hereinafter referred to as the "MAFF"). In order for the First Party to subcontract services "Platform support staff services in Washington, DC for the Project" to the Second Party, both parties enter into the following Agreement.

(Outsourcing of the Services)

Article 1

The First Party shall entrust the following services (hereinafter referred to as the "Services") to the Second Party, and the Second Party shall implement the Services in good faith.

- (1) Export Promotion support staff services in Washington, DC for the Project
- (2) Any services incidental to the preceding item

2 The Services shall be performed as described in the attached "Statement of Work" (hereinafter referred to as the "SOW").

The Second Party shall engage the employees who have experience in related fields such as the food industry in this Services, and shall conduct sufficient discussions and coordination with the First Party and an agricultural attaché of the Embassy of Japan in Washington DC.

(Delivery, Acceptance Inspection)

Article 2

The Second Party shall prepare the monthly reports and other deliverables specified in SOW (hereinafter referred to as "Deliverables"), if any, to the First Party, and deliver them to the place of delivery, in the format and by the delivery date specified in the SOW.

2 The First Party shall conduct an acceptance inspection of the deliverables within 10 days after the delivery of the deliverables in accordance with the preceding paragraph, and the deliverables shall be passed the inspection when the First Party confirms that the deliverables conform to the inspection standards, and the Services shall be deemed to be completed when all the deliverables have passed the inspection.

3 If, as a result of the acceptance inspection, it is found that the deliverables do not conform to the inspection criteria, the First Party may request the Second Party to revise the deliverables within a specified time limit, and the Second Party shall revise the deliverables within the said time limit and receive confirmation from the First Party in accordance with this Article.

4 Any damage caused by loss or damage to the deliverables before the completion of acceptance due to reasons not attributable to either the First Party or the Second Party shall be borne by the Second Party, and any damage after the completion of acceptance shall be borne by the First Party.

5 The ownership of the deliverables shall be transferred from the Second Party to the First Party on the date of completion of acceptance inspection.

6 The ownership of the deliverables after being transferred from the Second Party to the First Party shall be transferred from the First Party to MAFF.

7 The usage of the deliverables shall be only MAFF and Embassy of Japan after the transference from the First Party.

(Contractual Non-Conformity Liability)

Article 3

If, after the acceptance of the Deliverables is completed, any discrepancy in the type, quality or quantity of the Deliverables or any other non-conformity with the terms of this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "Non-conformity") is found, whether or not the Non-conformity is caused by reasons attributable to The Second Party, the First Party shall, at the First Party's option, correct the Deliverables free of charge within a reasonable period of time, deliver substitute or insufficient Deliverables, or take any other necessary measures, including reduction or refund of all or part of the price. In such case, the First Party shall, at the First Party's option and within a reasonable period of time, take the necessary measures such as correction of the deliverables without charge, completion of performance by delivery of substitute goods or delivery of the shortage, reduction or refund of all or part of the price, or other necessary measures. In this case, the provision of Article 562, Paragraph 1 of the Civil Code shall not apply.

2 The provisions of this Article shall not preclude the First Party from claiming compensation for damages from the Second Party or exercising its right of termination.

3 If the First Party does not notify the Second Party to that effect within one (1) year after the termination of this Agreement, the First Party may not demand completion of performance, a reduction in the price, compensation for damages, or cancel the Agreement on the grounds of such nonconformity.

(Consignment Fee)

Article 4

The consideration for the execution of the Services (hereinafter referred to as the "Consignment Fee") shall be $9,250 U.S. dollars (including VAT) per monthly report, for a total of $92,500 U.S. dollars.

However, in the event that the Services are not completed on the date of delivery or the date of completion of the Services, etc., a late charge corresponding to the number of days of delay shall be reduced from the Consignment Fee. The late charge is an amount equivalent to 3/1000 of the Consignment Fee.

2 Transportation and other expenses incurred in performing this Service shall be included in the Consignment Fee.

(Payment)

Article 5

The payment of the Consignment Fee under the preceding Article shall be made after the completion of the acceptance inspection by the First Party, when the Second Party issues an invoice for the current month in a form approved in advance by the First Party. The First Party shall pay the fee as overseas remittance by wire transfer to the bank account designated by the Second Party by the end of each month following the month in which the Deliverables are received (if that day is a banking holiday, the payment shall be made on the preceding business day). The bank transfer fee shall be decided by the First Party.

(Restriction on Subcontracting)

Article 6

The Second Party shall not subcontract all or part of the Services to a third party without the prior written consent of the First Party.

2 If all or part of the work of this case is to be subcontracted pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Second Party shall bear all responsibility for the actions of the subcontractor.

(Survey, etc.)

Article 7

The First Party may, if deemed necessary, request a report on the status of implementation of the Services or the submission of books, documents and other materials, or the First Party or a person designated by the First Party may conduct an on-site investigation, and the Second Party shall cooperate in such investigation.

(Change of the Services)

Article 8

The First Party may, if necessary, change or suspend the Services, or change the deadline for performance. In this case, if it is necessary to change the consignment fee or the deadline for performance, the First Party and Second Party shall consult with each other to decide.

(Report)

Article 9

Upon completion of the Services, the Second Party shall submit to the First Party a written report on the completion of the Services without delay.

(Attribution of Rights)

Article 10

Copyright (including all rights stipulated in Articles 21 to 28 of the Copyright Act) in the Deliverables shall be transferred to the LICENCE on the date of completion of acceptance inspection as stipulated in Article 2, and shall be assigned to MAFF without compensation at the time of delivery by the LICENSEE to MAFF. the Second Party shall not assert any moral rights, nor shall it allow the author to do so. The consideration for the transfer, non-exercise, and licensing of the rights set forth in this Article shall be included in the consignment fee.

(Liability for Infringement of Intellectual Property Rights)

Article 11

If the use of the Deliverables by the First Party in accordance with this Agreement infringes upon the copyrights, patent rights and other industrial property rights or portrait rights of any third party (hereinafter in this Article referred to as "Intellectual Property Rights"), the Second Party shall compensate the First Party for any damages caused to the First Party by such infringement. However, if the infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights is solely attributable to the First Party, this shall not apply, and the Second Party shall not be liable for any damages.

2 In the event that the First Party receives a claim of infringement of intellectual property rights from a third party with respect to the use of the Deliverables by the First Party in accordance with this Agreement, the First Party shall promptly notify the Second Party to that effect in writing, and the Second Party shall deal with such claim at its own responsibility and expense, and shall not cause any inconvenience to the First Party. If the First Party incurs any expenses (including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, etc.) as a result of such claim, the Second Party shall immediately compensate for such expenses upon demand by the First Party. However, this shall not apply in the case where the said claim is solely attributable to the First Party.

(Provision and Return of Materials, etc.)

Article 12

If the Second Party requests the First Party to provide materials, etc. necessary for the performance of this service, the First Party shall, upon consultation between the First Party and the Second Party, provide such materials, etc. to the Second Party free of charge. In this case, the Second Party shall comply with the conditions of use stipulated by the First Party.

2 If it is necessary for the Second Party to perform work at the First Party's office, etc., in the performance of this service, the First Party shall provide the Second Party with the place where such work is to be performed (including the necessary equipment, facilities, and other work environment at the place where such work is to be performed) free of charge. In this case, the Second Party shall comply with the conditions of use stipulated by the First Party.

3 In the event that materials provided by First Party (including reproductions and altered materials) are no longer needed for the performance of this service, Second Party shall return them to First Party without delay or take appropriate measures in accordance with First Party's instructions.

4 The First Party and The Second Party shall provide, return, and take other actions regarding the materials, etc. in the preceding paragraphs in writing.

(Confidentiality)

Article 13

The Second Party shall not divulge or disclose to any third party information including personal information (Information that can identify the specific individual by name, date of birth or other description contained in such information (including such information as will allow easy reference to other information and will thereby enable the identification of the specific individual).

Hereinafter referred to as " Personal Information ") that it has obtained through this Agreement, or use such information for any purpose other than the performance of the services in question.

(Protection of Personal Information)

Article 14

The second Party shall take necessary measures to prevent the loss, leakage, or falsification of Personal Information with applicable laws and regulations.

(Prohibition of transfer of rights and obligations)

Article 15

The Second Party shall not assign its rights or obligations arising under this Agreement to a third party, have a third party succeed to such rights or obligations, or offer such rights or obligations as security.

- (11) When it is recognized that the financial condition has significantly deteriorated or is likely to deteriorate.

2 The First Party may terminate this Agreement in accordance with the preceding paragraph, regardless of whether or not there are reasons attributable to the Second Party.

3 The termination based on the preceding paragraphs shall not preclude the parties from claiming compensation for damages from the other party.

(Elimination of Antisocial Forces)

Article 17

The First Party and the Second Party pledge that either party (including major investors, officers, and equivalent persons) are not organized crime groups, organized crime group members or quasi-constituents, companies related to organized crime groups, persons related to specially intelligent violent groups, or other persons who commit acts contrary to the public interest (hereinafter referred to as "Antisocial Forces"), that both parties have not been so for the past five(5) years, and do not have any relationship with Antisocial Forces, including the provision of funds or favors, in the future.

2 The First Party and the Second Party pledge that both parties will not, by themselves or by using a third party, commit any act of violent demand, any act of unreasonable demand beyond legal responsibility, any act of threatening words or actions or use of violence with respect to transactions, any act of spreading rumors, using false pretenses or force to damage the credibility of the other party or obstruct the other party's business, or any other act equivalent thereto.

3 The First Party or the Second Party may immediately terminate this Agreement without any notice if it is found that the other party is in breach of the representations in Paragraph 1 or in breach of the covenants in Paragraph 2 above, regardless of the reasons attributable to the First Party or the Second Party. In addition, the terminating party shall not be liable for any damage caused by such termination.

(Compensation for Damages)

Article 18

In the event that any damage is caused to the First Party in connection with the implementation of this Agreement for reasons attributable to the Second Party, the Second Party shall compensate the First Party for all such damage upon the First Party's request.

2 Any damage caused by a natural disaster and/or other force majeure shall be decided upon consultation between the First Party and the Second Party.

(Reporting under the Whistleblower Protection Act)

Article 19

If the Second Party falls under the category of a subcontractor as defined in Article 2, Paragraph 8 of the Act against Delay in Payment of Subcontract Proceeds, Etc. to Subcontractors (hereinafter referred to as the "Subcontract Act"), and this Agreement falls under the category of a subcontract transaction as defined in Article 2, Paragraph 4 of the Subcontract Act, the Second Party may file a whistleblower report with the First Party in accordance with the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act, and the First Party shall respond to the report in accordance with its internal rules.

(Survival Clause)

Article 20

Articles 3, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, this Article, 21 and 22 shall remain in effect after the termination of this Agreement.

(Governing Law)

Article 21

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Japan.

(Court of Jurisdiction)

Article 22

The Tokyo Summary Court or the Tokyo District Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in the first instance over any litigation relating to this Agreement.

(Consultation)

Article 23

In the event that any matter not stipulated in this Agreement or any question arises concerning the interpretation of this Agreement, it shall be settled in good faith through consultation between the First Party and the Second Party.

(Term)

Article 24

The term of this Agreement shall be from May 1, 2024 through February 28, 2025 regardless of the date of execution of this Agreement.

As evidence of the conclusion of this Agreement, two (2) copies of this document shall be prepared, one (1) each with the signs and/or seals of the First Party and the Second Party.
