Good Afternoon:

I represent Russian businessman Eduard Khudainatov, the owner of the motor yacht Amadea. The attached verified claim of interest, challenging the U.S. government's forfeiture complaint, was filed this afternoon in United States District Court, Southern District of New York.

The following statement can be attributed to Adam Ford of Ford O'Brien Landy, lead counsel for Mr. Khudainatov in this matter:

"In contrast to the conjecture and false statements that led to the unlawful seizure of the vessel, this claim cements the fact that Mr. Khudainatov is, and has always been, the ultimate beneficial owner of the Amadea."

If you would like access to the many exhibits referenced in the claim, I can send you a link to a Google Drive with all the supporting materials.

Thank you.
