THE MUSLIM WORLD LEAGUE INVITES YOU TO

A Conversation On Bringing Peace To Gaza

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 2024 - 10 AM - 12 PM
FOUR SEASONS - 2800 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE NW -
WASHINGTON, DC

KINDLY RSVP TO MWLEVENTS@THEMWL.ORG

On behalf of the Muslim World League, I would like to extend a special invitation for an event with His Excellency Sheikh Dr. Mohammed bin Abdul Karim Al Issa, Secretary General of the Muslim World League on Thursday, January 18th in Washington, D.C.

In Gaza, the battle lines have been drawn on religious lines. And yet the religious community—the very people who can clarify the religious obligations of peace and mercy to the combatants-- has been sidelined. The world's religious leaders have a vital role to play in diffusing tensions, delegitimizing hate and violence grounded in anti-Semitism and Islamophobia, and delivering a vision for peaceful coexistence in the holy lands.

You are invited to hear from prominent religious and civil leaders in a robust discussion on how faith leaders and humanitarian organizations can use their voices to bring peace to Gaza.

Regards,

Muath Alamri, CEO of The MWL
