Congratulations to Richard Attias, who has had a career of building the most sought-after gatherings in the world, including the FII Institute. On the eve of the opening of FII8, his skill, innovation and perspectives were so well captured in an article in TIME today. Richard's emphasis on trust and dialogue as formative to establishing - and building - relationships, rings true to me now more than ever and I'm looking forward to the conversations set to take place in Riyadh this week.
