Subject: Richard Attias for 12/12 CEO Roundtable?

Hi, [REDACTED] – I hope this note finds you well.

We were made aware of the CEO Climate Roundtable [REDACTED] is hosting on 12/12, and would love to suggest Richard Attias, CEO of the FII Institute as a panelist.

Richard’s talent is anticipating and addressing the most pressing issues faced by the planet, activating powerful networks and inspiring innovation, establishing him as a trusted advisor to leaders the world over. He is focused on driving change by bridging gaps, creating a knowledge-based economy and ensuring economic diversification. He could add to the discussion with his perspectives around:

- Why the collective momentum and demand for change across companies, investors and citizens has yet to be leveraged at scale (estimates put green share of global stimulus between .2-.4%)
- Opportunities to unlock greater innovation in sanitation infrastructure for global health, including through private-public partnerships
- Emerging diseases caused by climate change
- The need for policies that consider both human health and the wellbeing of the planet’s animals and ecosystems

Please let me know if you might be interested in confirming Richard for this discussion. Many thanks.

Richard Attias is one of the world’s foremost convenors of leaders and powerbrokers.

His talent for anticipating and addressing the most pressing issues faced by the planet, activating powerful networks and inspiring innovation has made him a trusted advisor of leaders the world over.

Heads of state seek Richard's counsel in building nation brands, attracting investment, and furthering geopolitical goals. Global investors and financiers work with Richard to understand where capital can be deployed to achieve positive economic and social effects. Business leaders seek his support in furthering their strategic ambitions.

Richard was Executive Producer between 1992 and 2008 of the World Economic Forum (WEF) Annual Meeting in Davos. This era saw WEF emerge as one of the pre-eminent gatherings of world leaders, sharpening its impact on the global stage. In 2009, he co-founded the Clinton Global Initiative, and, in 2010, founded The New York Forum.

in 2019, Richard was asked to become the CEO of the FII Institute, a global foundation committed to achieving positive impact by tackling the biggest challenges faced by humanity. Richard has grown the FII Institute into an organisation which uses its convening power to host top-level summits in cities around the world, as well as conducting research and making investments.

Richard has assisted world leaders and global organisations at historic moments with international gatherings, celebrations, peace conferences and diplomatic summits.
