Hi [REDACTED],

So sorry for the delay here – it's been a bit hectic on our end! To update you, FII is still very much interested in having you moderate and are currently navigating the confirmations of some officials at the moment. They'll need a few more days before submitting a proposal for you to moderate – realize this makes it all a bit last-minute. If that's OK with you, it sounds like it's very possible to get you a great session or two. Let me know.

Best,

Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for getting back to me! FII would love to have you moderate a session at the event – we are still ironing out the agenda details and will be in touch with specific panels that might be a good fit towards the middle/end of next week. In the meantime, could you please register as a media attendee so we have you on the list?

Outside of moderating a session, would you be interested in connecting with Richard for an interview before or after the event? Let me know.

Best,
