Subject: RE: Podcast Guest: Chairman of Future Investment Initiative (FII)

Hi [REDACTED] – Sorry to bother, just wanted to follow up on the below. Would you be interested in having Richard as a guest? Happy to work with you on the exact topic but think he would be a great global source to speak to some of the macro investment trends right now.

Let me know!

Thanks,

Subject: Podcast Guest: Chairman of Future Investment Initiative (FII)

Hi [REDACTED] – Hope you are doing well! I've been listening to some of the episodes of the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] podcast and wanted to offer a potential guest for an upcoming episode.

I work with Richard Attias, the Chairman of the Future Investment Initiative who would be a great guest on the podcast to discuss a host of topics relevant to the global geopolitical and investment landscape at the moment, including how he mobilizes leaders to address the most pressing challenges.

One topic that is of particular interest to Richard is the investment case for industries concentrated in the Global South, including Africa and poorer South American countries, as the region is largely overlooked amidst global conflict. Richard believes that Western countries and the Middle East can harness private capital to support the global south with targeting investment in technology, AI, healthcare and education.

Happy to work with you on the specific topic if the global south angle isn't of interest as well.

Are you planning your upcoming episodes? Would love to connect you with Richard for if you are looking for guests. It would be a really interesting conversation with a global lens.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Thanks,
