Subject: Richard Attias, FII for [REDACTED] ?

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope all is well. Reaching out as I was looking into the [REDACTED] column and think it's a really interesting dive into an executive's life.

I work with Richard Attias, Chairman of the global think tank Future Investment Initiative \(FII\) Institute who would be a great subject for a future column in the series. Throughout his time at the Institute and beyond, Richard has built an unrivaled reputation for advising international leaders, corporations and nations on how to build their global influence, catalyze ideas, and mobilize populations — convening leaders for over three decades. It might be a cool opportunity to look at his routine or day-to-day strategy when helping craft one of the Institute's many convening events.

For some further background, Richard has been a key developer and executor of some of the largest events in the world, including World Economic Forum, Clinton Global Initiative, Nobel Laureates Conferences, The New York Forum, Bloomberg New Economy Forum, The African Cup, The African Games, and multiple opening ceremonies.

Aside from Richard's unparalleled experience as a leader, he has a fascinating personal story. Richard was born in Fez, Morocco and went on to graduate as a civil engineer, also gaining a Masters in Maths and Physics from Paris University. His career, which has taken him to France, Japan, Switzerland, Dubai and New York, initially began at IBM, where he quickly rose up the ranks before going on to found several organizations.

Would you be interested in connecting with Richard for a conversation? He could bring a unique, global perspective as he helps connect the dots between several key leaders and public figures. Happy to coordinate.

Best,

██████████, Looking forward to meeting.

You must download the FIFA Club World Cup app. That's how the tickets will be passed to you from me. (You too ██████████)

Let me know when you have installed it and then I will try the transfer.

Worst case scenario, we meet at a gate tomorrow and I scan everyone in.

Hi [REDACTED] –

So glad you can join us for the match tomorrow. Looping us all together on one chain to share contact information and details for the game. Kickoff is set for tomorrow at 3:00 p.m. ET at MetLife Stadium.

Sitting with you will be [REDACTED], Head International Affairs Section at PIF, and [REDACTED], Managing Director and Head of Sports at Prosek.

When you get a chance, you'll need to download the Fifa Club World Cup app. [REDACTED] will transfer the tickets to you through the app.

Should we use this email address for the tickets or another one? If you could also share the best mobile number to reach you on, that would be great.

Let us know if you have any questions.
Go Blue!

Thanks,

[REDACTED]
