No prob. I sent it along and I think [REDACTED] was going to stop by when he got there. Hopefully something beneficial comes from it for both sides.

Hi [REDACTED],

Just wanted to follow up and say thanks again for your help on this. Someone from [REDACTED] stopped by the suite yesterday, which we really appreciated.

Not sure if that came through your outreach or if it was [REDACTED] — who also swung by and we put the request into directly — but either way I wanted to thank you for being so responsive and for passing things along internally.

Hope all is well in [REDACTED] and that we'll have a chance to reconnect around another tournament this season.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Hi there, it's [REDACTED]. They can ask for [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. Thanks so much. Will be there from 11 onward today.

Hi,

What is the Suite # and who should they ask for?

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you're doing well. I wanted to follow up in case your team is still on site at Indian Wells.

The PIF media team will be around the tournament again tomorrow and would be happy to host someone from [REDACTED] in the suite. It could also be a good opportunity to connect ahead of a few potential opportunities coming up around the Miami Open that may be of interest to discuss.

If helpful, I'm happy to coordinate directly with anyone from the team who may be on the ground.

Appreciate you passing things along internally and hope we can connect soon.

Best,

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you had a nice weekend. Thanks again so much for checking internally and for forwarding this along. Really appreciate it.

Also, meant to say earlier, sorry to hear you're stuck at home this year! The Indian Wells trips are always a grind, but definitely fun ones to be part of. Let me know if you have plans to attend any other tournaments this year?

Just to confirm for your colleague, this is an invite for [REDACTED] to join a small media gathering PIF is hosting in their suite at Indian Wells tomorrow at 11:00am (time for them to join can be flexible as we'll be there all throughout the day).

I'll be on the ground starting this evening and happy to share any additional details or coordinate directly with anyone from the team if helpful.

Hi again,

I just got a response from a VP asking for confirmation that this is an invite for someone at [REDACTED] to come to the PIF PR event and if there are any other details you can share with them.

Hi [REDACTED],

Congrats on the new gig! Hope all is well. Unfortunately, I won't be in Indian Wells next week, but I did forward your message to some of the decision makers around here so perhaps you'll get an email from someone at [REDACTED] regarding meeting up with you and PIF. They used to fly me out to Santa Monica before the pandemic, but we went remote now and they don't need me out there unfortunately so I'm stuck at home now in [REDACTED]. Those were always fun junkets even during the 17-hour days.

Hi [REDACTED]

Hope you've been well. I'm not sure if you remember, but during my time at Citi my team had the opportunity to work with you around the [REDACTED] in Washington — always appreciated your partnership there.

I've since joined a PR agency and am currently supporting PIF on their engagement around Indian Wells. As part of that, they will be hosting a small group of media and industry stakeholders in their suite on March 10 at 11:00am.

I wanted to reach out to see if you may be on site at the tournament, or if there may be someone from the [REDACTED] team who will be attending that we might be able to connect with while we're there. Would be great to reconnect if schedules align.

Any opportunities to engage PIF spokespeople could be of interest as well.

Thanks so much,

Yes, that would be great, thank you.

And please do keep me posted on your group for next week.

[REDACTED] would be interested to meet if schedules work out. She's there now and for the next few days, but not sure her schedule for next week. I think [REDACTED] might be under the weather at the moment.

Do you want me to connect you with [REDACTED] over email?

One additional thought I meant to mention...PIF has a strong focus on advancing women's sports globally, including through their PIF WTA Maternity Fund Program, which supports professional women athletes with paid maternity leave and broader family planning resources.

Given [REDACTED] long-standing leadership in championing equity and opportunity in women's sports, there could be a meaningful connection point there if the timing aligns. Happy to share more context if helpful as you think about plans.

Of course, [REDACTED]. If you think it would be a good fit, happy to run the group by PIF if you can share more on who it is?

That's awesome. Had the opportunity to meet [REDACTED] in my days at [REDACTED]. To answer your question, yes, they are hosting other days.

Are there a few dates you're looking at that I can look into for you, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] or is it pretty up in the air?

Best,

[REDACTED]

Thanks for the invite, [REDACTED]. I have an outside group coming to the stadium that afternoon. But I was actually discussing going with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] but date TBD. Do you know if they are hosting other days or have other events going on in case I go out a different day?

Hi [REDACTED],

One of my other clients, PIF, is hosting LA-based sports professionals in their suite at Indian Wells next week on March 12 starting at 11am.

Wanted to see if you and a plus one might be interested? I know it's a trek from LA, but wanted to at least extend the invite. Let me know.

Thanks,
