Hi [REDACTED],

Both days follow a similar format really. You have bits in the morning i.e. practice etc then qualifying starts at 10:40am.

After qualifying there will be an opportunity to do some of the elements below (actual itinerary tbc but can get to you later this week) before the race at 3pm.

So, imagine the day would be from anytime after 10/11am to about 4:30pm, with obvious flex there depending on what else you have on.

Would be great to have you so do let me know if either day / both days work.

Best,

[REDACTED]
