Good morning, [REDACTED]

Krizia Liauw and Abram Molumbot from Danantara will also be accompanying Pandu to your office this morning. Just wanted to let you know so their names are with security. Thank you!

That all sounds good! Would you be open to a quote check for accuracy purposes if you do publish anything?

Hi [REDACTED],

That works. I'm happy to start the conversation on background, though I'd like to put parts of it on the record where possible, as I may write from the interview.

In addition to the topics below, I'd also like to discuss Danantara's governance, its broadening mandate, its experience working with and raising capital from global partners, and the broader investment environment in Indonesia.

Looking forward to seeing you and Pandu tomorrow.

Best,
[REDACTED]

Great! And in addition to the topics outlined below, anything else you want to discuss with Pandu?

Is it ok if we have the conversation on-background? If you are working on a specific story we can switch to on-the-record in the moment. Work?

Hi [REDACTED]

Would it be possible for Pandu to come to your office? He will be coming from downtown so that would likely be easiest.

If not, we could host at our offices [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Let me know what you prefer!

Great, thanks [REDACTED]! We'll share around a calendar invitation shortly.

Additionally, wanted to see if you were interested in connecting with Pandu Sjahrir, CIO of Danantara Indonesia, the Indonesian sovereign wealth fund with over $900B in AUM. He will be in New York City next week between September 22 and 23rd.

Topics Pandu can discuss include:

- Danantara's investment strategy: Where the fund is looking to deploy capital next and the rigorous process it uses to evaluate global investment opportunities
- Indonesia's role in global capital flows: How geopolitical and economic shifts are creating new opportunities for Indonesia and Southeast Asia
- Strategic sectors: Opportunities across critical minerals, energy, AI infrastructure and other industries central to Indonesia's long-term growth
- Building global partnerships: How Danantara is working with leading international investors and companies to bring capital, expertise and investment opportunities to Indonesia

I've CCed my colleague [REDACTED] who can coordinate, if so.

Have a great weekend and please let me know if any questions come up on your end.

Best,

[REDACTED]
