Appendix
Response to Item 11

Item 11: During this 6 month reporting period, has the registrant engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 7, 8, or 9 of this statement? If yes, identify each foreign principal and describe in full detail all activities and services:

Foreign Principal(s)	Activities/Services
King Abdullah University of Science & Technology (KAUST)	During the 6-month reporting period ending September 30, 2026, Capital K, LLC (referred to herein as "Capital K Management") has continued the same investment management activities as disclosed in its prior FARA filings. Specifically, Capital K Management is a Silicon-Valley based private VC fund management firm created to manage the investments of an institutional U.S.-based VC fund: Capital K Investment Fund I, LP (referred to herein as "Capital K Fund"). In 2023, King Abdullah University of Science and Technology ("KAUST")—a Saudi Arabian research university—committed $200 million from the university's endowment into Capital K Fund and is the primary source of funds for Capital K Fund's minority investments in privately-owned startups. While Capital K Management is independent of KAUST and has the authority to make its own investment decisions, the investment guidelines require that Capital K Fund's investments generate sustainable returns on invested capital and stimulate, attract and grow technology-based companies that will contribute towards the advancement of Saudi Arabia's innovation and entrepreneurship ecosystem. In the ordinary course of business, Capital K Management identifies and invests in various private companies. Capital K Management also works with KAUST to identify potential investments as spin-outs from the university. When meeting with prospective investment targets in the ordinary course of business, Capital K Management discloses that KAUST is the source of Capital K Fund's committed capital and that Capital K Fund's investments are intended to contribute towards the advancement of Saudi Arabia's innovation and entrepreneurship ecosystem. Once it has made investments, Capital K Management helps support the companies it has invested in and sometimes receives a board and/or observer seat. On a periodic basis, Capital K Management also makes reports to KAUST's Investment Committee, and may make reports to its Innovation Committee in the future, about its operations and investments. Additionally, while Capital K Management does not prepare or disseminate informational materials, KAUST and/or recipients of Capital K Fund Investments may, on their own and independent of Capital K Management, publish press releases regarding investments made from the Capital K Fund. In the past, Capital K Management has provided short quotes that entities other than Capital K Management have chosen to include in their own press releases (such as to announce an investment). Capital K Management does not prepare or disseminate those publications, but it does approve press releases issued by recipients of Capital K Fund investments that mention Capital K or Capital K Management's sole member or employees by name. In such cases, Capital K Management is only concerned with reviewing the portion(s) of press releases or public relations material that mention Capital K or Capital K Management's sole member or employees by name. In return for managing Capital K Fund investments, Capital K Management receives a management fee from Capital K Fund (which originates from KAUST via a special purpose vehicle) equal to 2.25% per annum of the total Committed Capital (which is paid quarterly). Additionally, Capital K Management may receive a discretionary bonus not to exceed $500,000 per annum. Capital K Management bears all normal operating expenses except as set forth in the Amended and Restated LPA. Capital K Management is also reimbursed for some expenses incurred on behalf of Capital K Fund such as taxes, legal, fund administration, insurance, accounting, and audit fees, as well as some costs incurred in the course of identifying, investing in and supporting companies, such as travel expenses, legal or conference fees.
