Re: Pause of Engagement

Dear Precision Strategies Team,

On behalf of Yayasan Berbakti Semangat Indonesia (YBSI), I extend our heartfelt gratitude for the exceptional partnership and steadfast support that Precision Strategies has provided over the past years.

The Precision Team has gone above and beyond in delivering strategic insight, communications excellence, and invaluable guidance as we navigated sensitive and complex terrain in Washington. You have helped us connect with key stakeholders, understand the nuances of U.S. policy communications, and refine our narrative and approach in ways that have been instrumental to our mission.

We are especially grateful for your patience, flexibility, and commitment throughout our journey — including during moments of uncertainty. You have helped shine a light on opportunities we might not have seen otherwise, and you've done so with a professionalism and grace that speaks volumes about your firm's character and capability.

After careful consideration — and in light of the ongoing lack of clarity from the White House regarding the areas most vital to our work — we have made the difficult decision to pause our engagement with Precision Strategies. In accordance with Section 4(c) of our agreement, this pause will be effective in five (5) business days from the date of this notice: on Friday, June 6, 2025. We will settle any remaining invoices on a prorated basis up to June 6, 2025..

Please know that this decision is not a reflection of the outstanding service you have provided, but rather a strategic recalibration in response to evolving external realities. We remain hopeful that the door to continue the engagement will reopen when the time is right.

With our deepest thanks and warmest regards,

Mulya Amri,
Chair of the Executive Board
