The purpose of this amendment is to indicate that registrant's initial submission was a retroactive registration for work wholly undertaken on behalf of the foreign principal in 2018. The registration is not ongoing and should be terminated; the registrant concluded his work for the foreign principal on November 30, 2018. Registrant did not evaluate his potential obligation to register under FARA until the work had already concluded, and only recently made the determination that registration was required.
