Sudan stands at a critical crossroads. As the United States and the international community evaluate the country's future, there is a limited but significant opportunity to position Sudan's Democratic Civilian Forces as the credible democratic alternative capable of restoring stability and economic prosperity, advancing democratic governance, and rebuilding confidence among international partners. We believe Sudan has the opportunity to emerge as an important strategic and economic partner of the United States. By advancing a vision centered on democratic governance, transparency, security, and private-sector growth, Sudan's Democratic Civilian Forces can help attract

Strategic Counsel and Planning

Provide senior-level strategic guidance to The Dabaiwa Media Network Limited on behalf of Sudan's Democratic Civilian Forces on U.S. engagement, media and policy. This includes advising on political positioning, institutional credibility, sequencing of reforms, and alignment with U.S. and international expectations to support a peaceful, prosperous and democratic Sudan.

Policy Development and Narrative Shaping

Develop and refine a clear policy and communications framework that articulates the party's objectives, legitimacy, and roadmap. This includes positioning the party around security stabilization, rule of law, democratic renewal, anti-corruption measures, and economic revitalization, while countering misinformation and competing narratives.

Messaging and Content Development

Prepare briefing materials, fact sheets, talking points, backgrounders, and leadership profiles. These materials will be designed for U.S. government officials, Congress, think tanks, media, and investors, ensuring message discipline and consistency across all engagements.

U.S. Government and Policy Engagement

Engagement with senior officials across the Trump Administration, including the White House, U.S. Department of State, as well as relevant offices within the National Security Council. Parallel outreach will be conducted with key congressional leaders and committees to ensure policy alignment, continuity of support, and sustained engagement. Priority will be given to engaging the State Department and Congress at the highest levels. We will target up to 6-7 meetings a month for the client.

Media Relations and Strategic Communications

Engage U.S. and international media to elevate visibility of the transition, reinforce credibility, and shape coverage around Sudan's path forward. This includes targeted media outreach, placement of op-eds and interviews, and proactive narrative management to frame Sudan as moving toward stability, democratic governance, and opportunity. We anticipate up to three media engagements a month, depending on the media cycle.

Think Tank, Academic, and Third-Party Engagement

Build relationships with leading think tanks, policy institutes, academic institutions, and third-party influencers to shape informed discourse on Sudan, security and stability challenges, governance reforms, and economic prospects. These engagements will help anchor Sudan within broader U.S. policy debates and regional security discussions. We anticipate 2-3 think tank meetings a month.
