Conducts grant management and program planning tasks for the Japan US Military Program (JUMP).

The Japan US Military Program (JUMP) is a partnership between Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA and the Embassy of Japan, which honors U.S. military personnel and veterans for their contributions to the U.S.-Japan security alliance and engages them in high-level dialogue with U.S.-Japan alliance leaders. The program is made possible by financial support from the Embassy of Japan.

JUMP provides opportunities for U.S. military personnel and veterans to deepen their understanding of the strategic importance of the U.S.-Japan security alliance and to network amongst themselves, as well as with their Japanese counterparts in the Self-Defense Forces, to build trusted, personal relationships. JUMP accomplishes this by providing panel discussions with policy experts, keynotes by high-level military and diplomatic officials, and social engagements at military bases, service academies, and institutions across the United States.

Appendix Response to Item 12

Item 12: Do any of the above described services include political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act? If yes, describe separately and in detail such political activity. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation or dissemination of informational materials.

As described above, Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA aimed to bring together Americans who had served or are currently serving in the US military in Japan together through events to encourage greater support for the US-Japan alliance. This was intended to be accomplished through luncheons and networking events that brought these service members together to discuss and connect with their Japanese counterparts.

The events themselves were advertised through social media and mailed advertising.
