This Agreement may not be assigned in whole or in part without prior written consent of the Company.

13. Liability

The Parties are solely and exclusively liable to third Parties for all costs incurred by each Party and for all claims of damages against each Party arising out of or based on each Provider's actions in performance of this Agreement. The Parties agree to indemnify and hold the other Party harmless from any and all claims or liability that may arise out of or on account of any intentional or grossly negligent failure on the part of the other Party to perform any service or duty as herein agreed.

14. Headings and Counterparts

The various headings used in this agreement are intended for convenience only and shall not affect the meanings or interpretations of this agreement or any provisions thereof. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and all such counterparts shall constitute one and the same instrument.

15. Severability

If any provision or portion thereof of this Agreement is held to be invalid by any applicable statute or rule of law, it shall be, to that extent, deemed omitted without invalidating the remaining portions of this Agreement.

No delay or omission by either Party in the exercise of any right or power shall impair any such right or power or be construed to be a waiver thereof. A waiver by either of the Parties of any of the covenants, conditions or agreements to be performed by the other or any breach thereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach thereof or of any other covenant, condition or agreement herein contained.

17. General

This Agreement shall be binding upon and enforceable by the Parties' respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the Parties hereunder shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the law of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without giving effect to the conflict of law principles thereof. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration, conducted before a single arbitrator sitting in a location selected by the Firm, in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect.
