Briefing on Repression of Christianity in Armenia

Join civil society leaders, government officials, and clergy members to show support and learn more about the ongoing illegal oppression of the Armenian Apostolic Church.

Earlier this year, Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan unleashed an aggressive Soviet-style crackdown on the Armenian Apostolic Church, usurping its independence, arresting and detaining high level clergy and engaging in a propaganda campaign to destroy the Church, the oldest institution in the first Christian nation. With this effort Pashinyan is destroying the historic and spiritual identity of the nation.

November 20th, 2025
3:30 PM

Rayburn House Office Building Room 2060
Washington, DC 20515

Featuring speakers

Dr. Joel Veldkamp, Christian Solidarity International
Corentin Clerc, SOS Chrétiens d'Orient
Peter Flew, International Legal Scholar
Lauren Homer, Law and Liberty International

Armenians in the homeland and the Armenian diaspora throughout the United States are gravely concerned about the future of their Church.

International Christian organizations deem Pashinyan's actions reprehensible as violations of human rights and religious liberty.

Speakers will address Pashinyan's attempt to silence dissenting opinions, his abandonment of Armenians and the holy sites in Artsakh and the implications for the future of Armenia.

This event is organized by Sovereign Global Solutions, LLC on behalf of the National Democratic Alliance for Armenia
