

Thank you, Peter!

I am sending only a couple of items at this moment and I will send more information to you after New Years. I will make sure that you receive all the information that we have that could be of assistance.

Your point is obviously one of the most important! It seems clear that the repressive activities are taking place for political reasons - reminiscent of Lenin's [Soviet] style, precisely because they represent a resistance to the authoritarian aims of the current administration. [Very happy to discuss this and provide more information.]

Please find the following links and explanation below:

1. Briefing on Capitol Hill
2. Euromedia24 Interview with Jan Figel
3. Letter from the Forum of Armenian Associations of Europe
4. Lemkin Institute Statement
5. Statement by the National Democratic Alliance of Armenia at the end of 2025.

We held a briefing on the Repression of Christianity in Armenia on Capitol Hill with international lawyers and humanitarian experts on November 20. If you have minimal time, the most important briefing, in my view, is that of Christian Solidarity International Joel Veldkamp beginning at minute 28, <https://f.io/yJbSRKwU>.

Euromedia24 Interview with Jan Figel

International Interview with Jan Figel, former EU Commissioner for Innovation & Research, President of Forum for Religious Freedom-Europe (FOREF), Slovakia, condemning the unlawful actions by Armenia's government against the Armenian Apostolic Church.

Letter from the Forum of Armenian Associations of Europe

In this Statement from the Forum of Armenian Associations of Europe, political and ecclesiastical leaders across Europe, including former prime ministers of Italy and France, who express grave concern over the repression of the Church in Armenia. They have gathered to ask the western world to take notice and get involved to stop what is happening in Armenia.

This statement from the Lemkin Institute, which monitors genocide) was issued 12/28/25 about the repression of the Church in Armenia.

<https://www.lemkininstitute.com/statements-new-page/statement-on-the-suppression-of-the-armenian-apostolic-church:-historical-continuities-of-identity-erasure-within-victim-groups>

NDA Letter to the International Community

Letter to the world's political leaders about the dire situation in Armenia leading up to the 2026 elections.

I will send more information soon!

Thank you Peter.

Happy New Year,
Jacqueline

i

ⁱ This material is distributed by Sovereign Global Solutions on behalf of National Democratic Alliance of Armenia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.